

IDENTIFY THE VERBS ANSWER SHEET

Place a squiggly line under the verb(s) or verb phrase(s). On the line next to the sentence, write the noun or pronoun which is performing the actions (the subject). This activity can be done with a partner. As soon as you finish, silently raise your left hand(s). If your answers are correct, you will receive raffle tickets!

Hint: Be sure to identify with squiggly lines all of the verbs in the sentence.

Example: I am always misplacing or forgetting my school homework planner. I

1. My friend, Abbey, never forgets or loses anything. friend
2. She consistently remembers her books and completes her homework. She
3. Our other friend, Kristen, also finishes her assignments on time. friend
4. I often make lists and write reminders for myself. I
5. Even with the reminders, I sometimes leave my assignment in the printer. I
6. I may write another reminder by the computer and then check it every day. I
7. I will write the note on neon orange paper and make the letters huge. I
8. Abbey calls or instant messages me most nights with the homework. Abbey
9. Now, I am improving and earning better grades. I
10. Next year, I will have developed good habits and will not need their help. I

Note:
Sentences may have two or more verbs with one subject. These sentences have compound verbs.
